NORTH ENTRANCE TO QUARRY HILL PARK TO REOPEN

As of Thursday, July 12, 2007, the north entrance to Quarry Hill Park will reopen. In addition, access to the bike trail at the north end of the park will once again be available.

Various contractors will be at the site periodically to conduct monitoring activities, remove buckthorn, complete minor "punch list" items, and plant the temporary and permanent vegetation. People are asked to stay on the trail to avoid disturbing the new vegetation.
